

ABOUT OUR FIRST MEETING

No Obligation for an Initial Meeting. Unless we have informed you otherwise, you will not be billed for an initial estate planning consultation. Note that certain types of cases may require a consultation fee; we will inform you in advance if such fee is applicable. You should set aside approximately 1.5 hours for an initial estate planning consultation.

Our Investment in You. We are willing to set aside time for you so that we may confidentially discuss your unique circumstances to determine if we can help you. This is our investment in you. We make this investment hoping you will like what you see and retain us to help you plan your estate.

In Return. We expect that you will come to the meeting prepared, and if you are married, that both spouses will attend the meeting. If both spouses cannot attend, please let us know prior to the scheduled meeting. If you or your spouse needs special accommodations or is housebound, please let us know, and we will make an appropriate accommodation for you. We cannot express enough how vital it is that you take the time to complete the attached Estate Planning Worksheet and return your completed questionnaire at least 2 days prior to our meeting. If this is not feasible, please let us know so that we may make alternative arrangements.

Make the Investment. Most people will spend more time planning their next vacation than they will spend planning their estates and how to provide for their loved ones at death or upon disability. It may be human nature to avoid thinking these matters, but don't make that mistake. Please invest the time to complete the confidential Estate Planning Worksheet. Make the investment now for yourself and your loved ones.

What to Bring With You to Our First Meeting: If possible, please bring the following with you to our first meeting.

1. Copies of deeds to your real property.
2. Life insurance documentation, including your most recent statement, ownership and beneficiary information.
3. Most recent bank account, brokerage account, other investment account statements.
4. Copies of all Buy-Sell Agreements, Partnership Agreements and other agreements related to your business interests.
5. Copies of all Prenuptial Agreements, Divorce Decrees or Court Orders obligating you to pay alimony or child support.
6. Copies of existing Wills, Powers of Attorney, Living Wills and Trusts.
7. Copies of most recent pension, retirement or social security statements.

Attorney Fees for Estate Planning: Fees are dependent on the unique circumstances of each client, and the client's choice of planning features and options. Attorney fees for estate planning are on a flat fee basis. Attorney fees are not based on an hourly rate. You will be quoted the attorney fee in advance of any obligation for preparation of your estate plan. All estate plans include ancillary planning documents such as powers of attorney and healthcare directives.

We look forward to working with you in an effort to help you achieve your goals, dreams and estate planning objectives, and to eliminate any concerns that you have about the estate planning process.
